Fort Dearborn Company Announces Sr VP of Sales

March 21 , 2005 (Elk Grove, IL)

Fort Dearborn Company announces the appointment of Jeff Brezek as Sr Vp of Sales. As Sr VP of Sales, Jeff will be responsible for overseeing the management of the company's sales department. Most recently, Jeff served as the VP, Corporate Sales for RR Donnelley and previously held Sales Management positions for Wallace.

"Jeff brings 10 years of sales experience to FDC and is currently completing his MBA at DePaul University. His effective leadership, mentoring and team-oriented management skills will be very effective in helping Fort Dearborn to reach our sales growth goals", commented Mike Anderson, Fort Dearborn Company Chief Operating Officer.

This organizational change supports the company's continued commitment to demonstrating unparalleled performance in the key strategic areas of customer intimacy, velocity, and innovation as well as ongoing growth plans in established and new markets.

Fort Dearborn Company is a leading provider of label solutions for the food and beverage, personal care, household products, paint and coatings, and wine and spirits markets. The company has 6 operating divisions in North America, employing nearly 800 associates.
